Cambridge Mass.
November 1938.

Dear "Cap.":

I recieved your letter last week and I've been looking up Mapp's adress ever since. I'm sending ~~me~~ to you just as soon after I got it and found time to write.

About the jacket, I told Green what you said about sending the jacket back. He said he didn't take it. He said whoever went to 86 Wickliffe St after it may have misplaced it. He said "Tex" Burnett's name was in his jacket.

Mr. Dick Mapp
74 Littlefield St.
Avon Mass.

Mapp has a ^{Mass} Brockton address too, since he's been married. I'll get it and send it to you as soon as I get it. The above address is his family's address.

It I told him to write and explain all that to you, but evidently he didn't. I haven't seen him for quite some time.

I saw Dan McClellan the other day and he asked me to give you this note when I wrote you.

I've been feeling quite well and taking things fairly easy.

Hoping you are in the best of health and hope to hear from you again soon. I remain

Sincerely yours,
Francis Matthews.
